Teachers Teaching with Technology™
Professional Development from Texas Instruments

Kicking a Field Goal for the Win

education.ti.com/webinars

Texas Instruments

TI Codes

Get students started in coding

Engage students in an easy entry into programming with short activities that help spark interest in coding, computer science and robotics.

education.ti.com/TICodes python™ TI-Basic

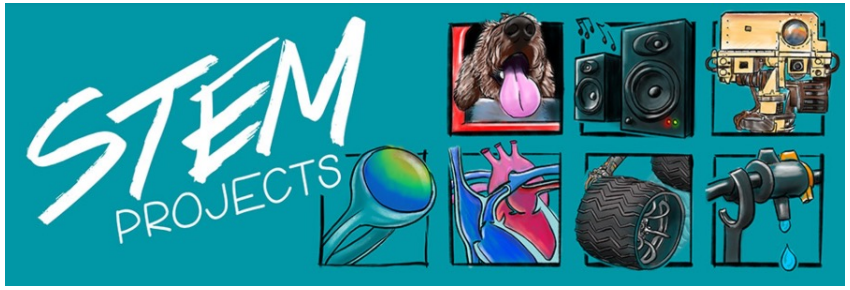
STEM Projects

Fun activities for your STEM class, club or camp

Get free lessons to help students learn real-world skills. From coding a digital mood ring, to making a pet car alarm, to making our robotic vehicle move, keep students motivated with these engaging activities.



tistemprojects.com

Computer Science Resources

Reinforce the computer science skills students learn with hands-on technology

TI technology offers the perfect addition to computer science classes. Empower your students to apply computer science concepts in highly engaging activities and projects that can be done individually or as a group.

https://education.ti.com/en/resources/computer-science

Room to Grow: A Math Podcast

Come grow with us

Room to Grow brings you discussions on trending topics in math education in short segments. We're here to think and learn with others — because when it comes to mathematics, there's always room to grow!

roomtogrowmath.com