Model the Spread of Diseases Using Real Data With TI-84 Plus CE Technology

April 30, 2020 | 7 p.m. Central / 8 p.m. Eastern

Learn how to creatively and effectively use the TI-SmartView™ emulator software and the Chromebook™ app to teach remotely — or in person. Get some tips on how to best utilize the features of this emulator software and app. We will illustrate these features while also modeling real data about infectious diseases. We'll discuss various models, how to interpret them, and what that means.
