Moderator Bio

Mike Houston

T³ National Instructor

Ellwood City, PA

Mike is in his sixteenth year of teaching high school mathematics in Ellwood City, PA. While participating in a TI-Navigator™ Fast-Track in 2007, he learned how technology can effectively cultivate students' wide range of learning styles. During this time, Mike has served as a T³ National Instructor. Mike is also the coauthor of: On the Money: Mathematics Activities to Build Financial Literacy Grades K-5.

Panelists' Bios

Randi Munch Arvanitis

T³ Regional Instructor

Chula Vista, CA

Randi is in her 17th year of forcing her love of math on children in the classroom. In the past few years, she has added Physics to her teaching credentials and enjoys throwing things just to yell “GRAVITY”. She has worked at the same high school her entire teaching career and would not go anywhere else. She became T³ Regional Instructor with her best friend Jennifer even though Jennifer claims the “menu” button is her best friend. Randi currently serves as the Technology Implementation Resource for her school while in distance learning.

Jennifer Waters

T³ Regional Instructor

Chula Vista, CA

Jennifer is in her 13th year of energizing mathematics in the classroom. She has worked in both middle and high schools in Southern CA. Jenn is a champion of TI-Nspire, Technology and Statistics in the classroom. She became a T³ Regional Instructor with her best friend Randi and promised to always be her co-presenter. Her technology background as a young child drives her spirit to be a life-long learner both in and out of the classroom.
